The effect of this day's loss will probably be to throw the business of the session over to the next week. A large amount of valuable matter yet remains untouched.

Late accounts from Liberia represent the condition of the Colony as exceedingly prosperous. The ratified copy of the treaty of amity, friendship and commerce with Great Britain, reached Monrovia on the 15th of October last.

The resolution of the Legislature requiring the forcible removal of the company of Slave-traders at New-Cestors and Tradetown, had been fully carried out, and the Governor returns thanks, in a proper spirit, for the prompt aid afforded by the British and French Governments, in the loan of vessels of war. The slavers made a desperate de-vessels of war. The slavers made a desperate defense.

The schooner Lark, which was presented to the Republic by the British Government, arrived in May last at Monrovia, and has been of great service as a Guarda Costa, particularly in the suppression of the slave-trade. She mounts five guns. Since the last meeting of the Legislature, several important acquisitions of territory have been made. The President's Message says:

We have secured the whole of Grand Cape Mount, Sugarce, and Manna Territories, on the north-west, and Grand Cestors on the south-east; which give us—with the exception of a small intermediate point of about five miles in extent, in the Kroo country—an unbroken line of coast of about 320 miles. The aboriginal inhabitants of these recently acquired tracts of country have incorporated themselves with us, and they increase the population of Liberia Proper to about 150,000.

Negotiations have been opened with the Chiefs of Gallinas, for the purchase of that territory, and funds only are required to secure it.

SEIZURE OF A BRITISH BRIG FOR A VIOLATION OF THE PASSENGER LAWS.—We understand that the British brig Ellen & Margaret, Capt. Gowin, from Castletown, Ireland, has been detained at this port by the Collector, for a violation of the passenger act. She arrived at this port a short time since, with emigrants, two of whom secreted the realization. with emigrants, two of whom secreted themselves on board, thus making more than her complement on roard, thus making more than her complement she was allowed to bring under the passenger act. The consignees have potitioned to headquarters for information in regard to the case; and on account of the two passengers being thus secreted, she will be released.

THE CUBAN FAILURE.

Official Correspondence between Mr. Clayton and the Spanish Envoy.

Below we present portions, taken from the Herald, of the recent correspondence between Mr. CLAYTON, our Secretary of State, and Don A. CALDERON DE LA BARCA, the Minister from Spain, in regard to the invasion of Cuba, submitted to the U.S. Senate in response to a resolution of that body:

Don Calderon de la Barca to the Secretary of Translation J Various newspapers in New York and in other parts of the Union, and even The Republic of this capital, of the 10th of last December, published a kind of manifesto or card, in which a small number capital, of the John of ast December, punshed a kind of manifesto or card, in which a small number of individuals, without responsibility or mission, giving themselves out as Cubana, gave notice to the public that they had constituted themselves as a Junta, and taken up their residence in Washington, to promote the political interests of the Island of Cuba. In order, doubtless, to conceal their designs, they added that it was not their intention to infringe, by this announcement, on the laws of the United States, nor to contemplate hereafter any action which they would not stand prepared to justify before all tribunals, human and divine.

So extravagant and improper a manifesto, after the firm and honorable declaration of the Supreme Magistrate of the Republic, that he will oppose every combination hostile to a friendly and allied nation, in compliance with the existing treaties, naturally called the attention of the undersigned, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary of Her Catholic Majesty, as it attracted that of the public.

Her Catholic Majesty, as it attracted that of the public.

Having already spoken repeatedly on this subject to the Hon. Secretary of State, John M. Clayton, and having received verbal assurances that his Excellency, the President, disapproved and discountenced any project having for its object the formation of a new expedition against the dominions of Her Majesty, the undersigned transmitted these assurances to his Government, accompanied by the expression of his deeply-rooted conviction of their sincerity.

The same unchangeable conviction the undersigned takes pleasure in cherishing. The same assurances he repeated sends to his Government. But he would fall into a culpable dereliction of his duty were he to delay informing the Hon. Secretary of State of certain acts of the Junta, calculated to create and propagate the false and pernicious notion that its existence is approved, because permitted.

tion that its existence is approved, because permitted.

Making use of secret means, they are introducing into the Island of Cubs, and intend continuing to do so, incendiary proclamations, inciting them to a revolt. They have issued bonds, payable on the rents of the Island, to raise sums with which to recruit men. They exercise themseives in the use of arms. They hold juntas and clubs in New-York, New-Orleans and other places. They are encouraged and assisted by people of the country, and they form plans for making use of the steamers going to Chagres, to which such friendly hospitality is shown in Havana, to reunite adventurers at various points. Such are, at least, the simultaneous advices which the undersigned has received from various persons of good intentions, and deserving of credit.

These advices he has transmitted to his Govern-various persons of good intentions, and deserving of credit.

These advices he has transmitted to his Government, and to the Captain-General of Cuba. That functionary, in union with the loyal subjects of Her Msjesty, who there compose the immense majority, are prepared to punish all those who shall venture to disturb the tranquillity which the Island happily enjoys; yet the undersigned does not think it superfluous to inform the Secretary of State of the whole, that he may make it known to his Excellency, the President of the Republic.

The evils which these intrigues may occasion are evident. The incautious and ignorant are led astray, and plundered, under false pretenses. The authorities of the Island are forced to exercise a stricter vigilance, and the government of her Ma-

a stricter vigilance, and the government of her Ma-jesty to go to greater expense in their own de-fense. Distrust will replace friendly hospitality, and little by little, deplorable antipathies will be enge-referred, and will take root, which might be easily stifled in their birth by the voice of a re-
